

BMX Australia Release

3rd May 2011

2012 Nationals heading to Mount Gambier

BMX Australia is pleased to announce 2012 BMX Australia National Championships will head to Mount Gambier.

The nations eyes will be on Blue Lake BMX Club from 17 – 22 April 2012, in what will be a Olympic year it's sure to be a hotly contested National Championships.

Mount Gambier is home to 34,000 people and is 5 hours from either Adelaide or Melbourne. With plenty to see and do, the Limestone Coast is the ideal setting for next years National Championships.

For information on the region head to Mount Gambier Tourism

More information will be released soon on the BMXA website.